(Online or Face-to-face. A predetermined transportation allowance will be paid to applicants who will attend the face-to-face interview.)
- (2) Notification of the results of the first and second stages of the selection process will be given in writing directly to the applicant. The results of the second stage of the selection process will also be given to the university president who recommended the applicant.

Submission of Progress Report

The scholarship student must submit to the Japan Association of Catholic Universities and Junior Colleges a report of the researches for the 2023 academic year by March 31, 2024.

Re-application for scholarship

When a scholarship student wishes to re-apply for the scholarship the following year, the same procedures outlined here are to be followed. The scholarship can be awarded for a total of three years.

Loss of Scholarship Student Status

If any of the following conditions apply, the scholarship student will lose the status of scholarship student and the payment of the scholarship will cease. In certain cases, the scholarship student may be asked to reimburse the amount of the scholarship that has already been paid out.

- (1) If the successful completion of the program of studies is no longer possible because of illness or some other reason, or if the scholarship student has withdrawal from the university.
- (2) If the scholarship has been awarded on the basis of any false statements, oral or written, made in the application process.
- (3) If the scholarship student finds himself or herself in circumstances inappropriate for a scholarship student.

Use of personal information

Any documents submitted by the applicant will be used solely for the purpose of the scholarship selection process. Information will not be used for any other purpose.
